WOODLAND HILLS » He bought a $95 bottle of fine Syrah. Paid for first-class airfare and luxury hotel rooms. And racked up a $15,500 credit card tab at Monty's Prime Steaks & Seafood. David Fehte, executive director-principal of El Camino Real Charter High School in Woodland Hills, used the same school-issued American Express card to charge $100,000 over two years. Some charges came while moonlighting as a college basketball talent scout for the San Antonio Spurs.

Now the El Camino high board of directors has decided to launch an independent financial probe of the popular principal's spending. The forensic accounting comes ahead of a yearlong management assistance review by a state financial turnaround agency prompted by the credit card scandal.

Brexit vote a shocker

STEFAN ROUSSEAU/PA VIA AP

Even supporters of Britain's decision to exit the European Union appear disbelieving by the results at a party Friday night in central London.

LONDON » Britain has jumped. Now it is wildly searching for the parachute. The U.K.'s unprecedented decision to leave the European Union sent shock waves through the country and around the world Friday, rocking financial markets, toppling Prime Minister David Cameron and even threatening the ties that bind the United Kingdom. Britons absorbed the overwhelming realization that their anti-establishment vote has pushed the British economy into treacherous and uncertain territory and sparked a profound crisis for a bloc founded to unify Europe after the devastation of World War II. "Leave" campaigners hailed the result as a victory for British democracy against the bureaucratic behemoth of the EU.

Conservative former London Mayor Boris Johnson said "the British people have spoken up for democracy in Britain and across Europe," while Nigel Farage, leader of the hard-right U.K. Independence Party, said "the dawn is breaking on an independent United Kingdom."

But for the 48 percent of British voters who opposed a British exit or Brexit — and for the 2 million EU nationals who live and work in Britain, but could not vote — there was sadness, anger and even panic.

Suspect in deputy shootings identified

39-year-old man being held on $10 million bail

From staff and wire reports

BELLFLOWER » Two sheriff's deputies were shot late Thursday after a series of gunbattles with a man who fled a DUI checkpoint and was eventually arrested after a SWAT team fired tear gas into a home where the gunman was holding a hostage.

Juan Martinez, 39, was arrested on Friday morning and booked on multiple charges of attempted murder on a peace officer and kidnapping a civilian.

The two injured male deputies, who were not named, underwent surgery after being transported to Long Beach Memorial. One deputy was listed in stable but critical condition, and the other was shot in the upper torso and was also listed in critical but stable condition, sheriff's spokeswoman Nicole Nishida said Friday afternoon.

The civilian hostage, an adult man, was unharmed. Martinez was also unharmed.

The chaotic scene began at about 10:50 p.m. at a DUI checkpoint on Lakewood Boulevard.

A motorcycle deputy pulled over the suspect in the 1600 block of Lisa Avenue, deputies said. The gunman then got out of his vehicle with a firearm and "fired several rounds at the deputy, striking him multiple times,"
