WASHINGTON — The Trump administration is suspending a tariff hike on $250 billion in Chinese goods — a move that would avert Christmas season anxiety for many American shoppers.

The White House said Tuesday that China agreed to buy $40 billion to $50 billion in U.S. farm products as the world’s two biggest economies reached a cease-fire in their 18-month trade war.

The agreement reached during high-level talks last week in Washington is "going to be great" for the U.S., Trump said.

“The Arrow is going up,” the president tweeted Friday.
