

Monday, September 23, 2019

TASHLAND TIDINGS

AshlandTidings.com | Serving Ashland since 1876 | 75 cents

ARCIMOTO WIRED FOR SUCCESS

BUSINESS, PAGE A6

a rosebud newspaper

TODAY TUE WED

73°/53° 79°/53° 78°/50°

Complete forecast, A19

REGION

Wind turbines threaten Pacific Northwest bat

Study finds the hoary bat faces uncertain future because its numbers have declined by 2% per year. A9

LOCAL/STATE

Oregon Health Plan changes on horizon

More than 10,000 people on the Oregon Health Plan in Jackson and Josephine counties will start getting postcards this week alerting them to a switch in their plan. A4

AuCoin publishes political memoir

Former nine-term Oregon Congressman Les AuCoin's just-published autobiography, "Catch and Release," gives a candid peek behind the scenes at peak crises and heroic changes in the state's public life from 1970 to 1993. A4

Classified	21	Sports	13
Comics	20	Television	18
Nation/World	10	Voices	16
Region.....	8	Weather	19

Volume 144, Issue 82

KEY EVENT

Painted pianos add color to the Music for Peace week. See story, page A3

Phoenix High School senior Jazmyne Broussard work on painting a piano that will be place in Ashland for the community to use.

ANDY ATKINSON / ASHLAND TIDINGS

