

Pacific Daily News

©2008 Guam Publications, Inc.

A Gannett Newspaper

VOL. 40 NO. 208 HAGÁTÑA, GUAM, AUGUST 27, 2008

HABA ADAI, IT'S WEDNESDAY

guampdn.com

75¢ on Guam

Don't forget to vote in today's Pacific Daily News poll.

Today's question:

Do you plan to vote in the Primary Election?

Results from yesterday's PDN poll are on PAGE 2

10 families face eviction

Perez says notices to be delivered this week

TO THE POINT

▲ Families living in housing owned by the Department of Public Works will be evicted by the end of next week.

By Beau Hodai

Pacific Daily News
mhodai@guampdn.com

All residents living in Department of Public Works housing are facing eviction by the end of next week.

Norma Gogo said she's been living in an Agat home owned

In Your Voice

Post your comment on www.guampdn.com

by Public Works for six years. "I don't know why they're making an issue out of this,"

▲ See Eviction. Page 4

WHAT'S AT STAKE

▲ More than 10 families will be evicted from former teacher housing owned by Public Works.

▲ DPW Director Larry Perez said the leases were granted by an employee who didn't have the authority to do so.

▲ Eviction notices will go out this week and be enforced next week.

Cid Caser/Pacific Daily News/ccaser@guampdn.com

Carbullido remembered

Masako Watanabe/Pacific Daily News/mwatanabe@guampdn.com

Grief: U.S. Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Anthony M. Carbullido's widow, Summer Chaney Carbullido, is consoled during his funeral at the Guam Veterans Cemetery yesterday.

Family, friends bid farewell to fallen sailor

TO THE POINT

▲ Petty Officer 2nd Class Anthony "Tony" M. Carbullido was buried yesterday at the Guam Veterans Cemetery.

By Bryan C. Sualog

Pacific Daily News
bcsualog@guampdn.com

The family and friends of Petty Officer 2nd Class Anthony M. "Tony" Carbullido bid him farewell yesterday at his funeral.

The 25-year-old Navy hospital corpsman was killed Aug. 8 in Afghanistan from injuries suffered when his convoy vehicle hit an improvised explosive device.

Funeral services began yesterday morning at the Mount Carmel Church in Agat. Cars lined both sides of the street leading up to the church as people

▲ See Sailor. Page 5

ONLINE

Watch the video of the funeral of fallen sailor Anthony M. Carbullido at

WWW.GUAMPDN.COM

LAWSUIT FILED

Union files court action to force government to finally pay teachers about $3.8 million in back pay.

SEE STORY, PAGE 2

HOTEL MAKEOVER

Hilton Guam Resort & Spa will close Marianas Ballroom, Genji to make way for new features.

SEE STORY, PAGE 8

CODE YELLOW

▲ GMH was in "code yellow" status as of 8:30 p.m. yesterday, which means that total bed capacity was at 90 percent. No patients were waiting for beds. For updated information, call the GMH switchboard at 647-2939 and ask for the nursing supervisor. This box will appear on Page 1 daily.

ANYONE'S SEASON

Geckos hope to retain cross country title, but other teams are in the hunt

SEE STORY, PAGE 40

Pacific Daily News

ON THE AIR

Listen to live news Monday through Friday at:

KSTereO FM 95.5; Joy 92, 91.9 FM

Best at AK 2009 "An affordable Luxury family sedan." COROLLA Financing 3.50% Free Laptop Computer