

THE UNION-RECORDER

www.unionrecorder.com

TUESDAY, MAY 3, 2011

Milledgeville, Ga.

For the latest news and updates, follow us on Facebook and Twitter!

SPORTS

Lady Bulldogs fall short in region tourney.

PAGE 10A

NEWS

Eatonton Duplicate Bridge Club to play.

PAGE 2A

Delta Sigma Theta holds economic development meeting.

PAGE 2A

Week of music sure to tickle your fancy.

PAGE 5A

This is 'Be Kind to Animals Week'.

PAGE 5A

Ga. estimates $75M in insured losses from storms.

PAGE 7A

WEATHER

HIGH 80, LOW 48

Extended forecast, 2A

by Taylor Sherwood, Creekside Elementary

OPINION POLL

This week's question: Do you think Donald Trump will run for President?

Vote online at www.unionrecorder.com

To comment on this subject, please e-mail ndavis@unionrecorder.com

CONTACT US

- NEWS — 453-1450
AD SALES — 453-1430
DELIVERY — 453-1400
DIRECTORY — PAGE 2A

CORRECTIONS

If you spot an error of fact, call Managing News Editor Natalie Davis, (478) 453-1462. Corrections appear on PAGE 2A.

INDEX

- Classified ...3B
Daybook ...2A
Features ...9A
Fun Corner ...4B
Lottery ...11A
Obituaries ...4, 6A
Sports ...10A

Volume 191, Number 175
Two sections, 18 pages
50 cents daily

© 2011 The Union-Recorder

The nation reacts

Lannis Waters/AP Photo

Michael Serafini of Stuart, Fla., left an offering Monday morning, May 2, 2011 at a 911 memorial in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. The 46-year-old Stuart resident said he bought the statue for $50 at ground zero with his daughters.

Georgia delegation commends effort to track down bin Laden

By JONATHAN JACKSON
jjackson@unionrecorder.com

Delivering news Americans have waited nearly 10 years to hear, United States President Barack Obama informed the nation Sunday night that the most sought-after terrorist in the world had been killed for his role in the planning and execution of the Sept. 11, 2001, attacks in New York, Washington D.C. and Pennsylvania.

According to The Associated Press, Obama weighed his options in recent days on attacking a fortified compound close to the Pakistan capital Islamabad. At Obama's

David Manning/AP Photo

University of Georgia student Iain Turnbull waves a flag as he celebrates the death of Osama Bin Laden in front of a Civil War Memorial Monday morning in Athens.

order, an elite team of reportedly confronted Navy SEALs entered the compound where they

See GEORGIA, page 8A

City in suspended animation over terrorism

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is an excerpt of an article that originally ran in The Union-Recorder Wednesday, Sept. 12, 2001, a day following the attacks on the World Trade Center towers in New York, the Pentagon in Washington and the hijack attempt and crash of United Flight 93 in Pennsylvania.

The Union-Recorder

Milledgeville was left reeling and many local residents operated in suspended animation throughout the day as they huddled around televisions and radios for media updates on what were apparent terrorist attacks in Washington and New York.

"I'm scared," said Theresa Fortner, as she left the campus of Georgia College & State University Tuesday morning. "I have children who are old enough to serve in a war."

John Minchillo/AP Photo

Elijah Stevens, center, of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., visits ground zero with his daughter Caitlin, left, and wife Stephanie Monday to show their support for the U.S. military and the death of Osama Bin Laden.

See TERRORISM, page 6A

Relay for Life wraps up

By SARAH BETH ARIEMMA
sariemma@unionrecorder.com

Baldwin High School stadium Friday for the annual Relay for Life event.

In a celebration of life and a remembrance of those no longer living, more than 1,000 packed the

"Everything went so well. We had the best luminaria cere-

See RELAY, page 3A

For more scenes from this year's Relay for Life, view our online video footage.

Services today for former city attorney

By JONATHAN JACKSON
jjackson@unionrecorder.com

attorney Charles A. Mathis Jr., 57, who died Friday of congestive heart failure.

Funeral services will be held today in Atlanta for former Milledgeville city

Mathis served as Milledgeville city See SERVICES, page 8A

Advertisement for SINCLAIR POWERSPORTS, Inc. featuring jet skis and water sports. Includes address: 3061 N. Columbia St. • Milledgeville, GA 31061 • 478-452-1697 and hours: T-F 8:30-5:30 & Sat 8:30 to 3:00.