

He survived a croc attack, but a love of flying claimed his life

TRIBUTES POUR IN FOR CHOPPER CRASH PILOT PAGE 5

The Cairns Weekend Post

www.cairns.com.au

$1.70

It's showtime: A new entertainment precinct in Cairns would lift the city's ability to host big budget theatre productions.

YOUR WEEKEND

SEPTEMBER 10-11, 2011

WEATHER WATCH

TODAY
FINE AND WINDY
28C

TOMORROW
FINE AND DRY
27C

INSIDE

NEWS FROM CAIRNS AND AROUND THE WORLD

THE KING:

WOMEN really don't know what men want, according to editor-at-large Gavin King

■ PAGE 12

9/11 THE PAIN ENDURES

■ PAGES 13, 36-37

THAT'S THE TICKET

Council slashes $90 million from entertainment precinct

THE Cairns Entertainment Precinct will be dramatically scaled back to $150 million to address community fears over the cost and get the project across the line with the State Government. >> GAVIN KING REPORTS P10

DRINK-DRIVE CURSE

FAR Northern police say they are disgusted by the region's continuing reputation of being the worst drink-driving location in the state.

■ PAGES 6-7

NO.1 FOR HOMES

ALSO inside: Carguide CareerOne Weekender

LIFTOUT INSIDE

GO PRIDE GO - MAN BEHIND THE MISSION

PAGES 22-23