

Gadhafi is dead, but how did he die?

Some say a revolutionary shot him, but others say he died of wounds from a NATO airstrike. NATION & WORLD A6 dealsaver™

$20 for $40 in food and drink at DiMaggio's. SIGN UP TODAY AT DEALSAVER.COM/BELLEVILLE

YOUR VOICE. YOUR CHOICE. SINCE 1858. | FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2011 | $1

STL 1 WORLD SERIES 2 T

THE ONE THAT GOT AWAY

STEVE NAGY/News-Democrat

St. Louis Cardinals reliever Jason Motte reacts as he is taken out of Thursday's Game 2. Motte had just given up two singles to Ian Kinsler and Elvis Andrus. Both scored on sacrifice flies off relievers Arthur Rhodes and Lance Lynn to give the Rangers the win.

INSIDE

The Cards' bullpen is mortal. D1

Tony La Russa adopts indifferent tack to backers, critics. D3

Allen Craig likely will be the Cards' DH in Texas. D3

Get your Allen Craig poster. D8

BND.com

Go to bnd.com/worldseries for all things Cardinal.

• See more photos from the game.
• Read the View from the Cheap Seats blog.

BY JOE OSTERMEIER | News-Democrat

ST. LOUIS — Just like that, the World Series is tied at a game apiece.

The St. Louis Cardinals' bullpen gave up two runs in the ninth inning Thursday, giving Texas a 2-1 win in Game 2 of the World Series.

The Cardinals got their only run on a two-out pinch-hit RBI single from Allen Craig, his second in two games.

The Series moves to Texas for three games, with the Cardinals needing to win at least one game there to bring the Series back to St. Louis next Wednesday.

HOW IT WENT: Craig's pinch-hit RBI single came in the seventh, a day after he drove in the game-winner in the sixth inning of a 3-2 Cardinals win in Game 1.

In the ninth, Ian Kinsler and Elvis Andrus singled off Jason Motte ahead of sacrifice flies by Josh Hamilton and Michael Young against Arthur Rhodes and Lance Lynn.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Cardinals have lost home-field advantage in the Series, with Texas able to close it out if the Rangers can come up with three wins starting Saturday in Texas. The games, all 7:05 p.m., will be Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

HE SAID IT: "We did a lot to get the lead and Jaime was outstanding," Cardinals manager Tony La Russa said. "We had a couple chances to add (to the lead). They did some classic good baseball stuff to get the guys around to score."

READ MORE: Page D1

Murder case ends in mistrial

Witness who collapsed in court admits she lied on the stand about ex-cop

BY BETH HUNSDORFER News-Democrat

The judge in the Washington Park mayor murder trial declared a mistrial Thursday after a witness told a prosecutor that former Washington Park Detective Kim McAfee gave her money in exchange for her lying about McAfee's presence at the scene after the mayor was shot.

St. Clair County Judge Milton Wharton made the decision when Assistant State's Attorney Steve Sallerson relayed the content of a telephone conversation he had with the witness, LeQuisha Jackson, during the lunch break Thursday.

During that conversation, Sallerson said LeQuisha Jackson told him she did talk to McAfee the morning of Mayor John Thornton's murder on April 1, 2010. She said McAfee offered her money to say McAfee was not at the murder scene.

His motive was not known. McAfee was charged in a 38-count indictment for lying to federal law enforcement officials and underpaying his employees at his security firm, KLM Security. He pleaded guilty and is awaiting sentencing.

Thomas Q. Keefe III, the lawyer for the man accused of killing

Please see MISTRIAL, A2

Jackson

Thornton

BND.com

Read previous stories about the case.

INSIDE: Washington Park Detective Kim McAfee denies allegations that he attempted to bribe a witness. PAGE A2

Massacre note, mask are tied to Oduwole

BY BRIAN BRUEGGEMANN News-Democrat

EDWARDSVILLE — Police introduced more damaging evidence Thursday in the trial of a former Southern Illinois University Edwardsville student accused of attempting to make a threat about going on a murderous rampage.

But police also faced a flurry of defense questioning on whether the defendant, Olutosin Oduwole, had any intent to convey a threat.

The new evidence introduced Thursday included a second note, found in Oduwole's campus apartment, and a ski mask, found in his car.

First on the witness stand was Wood River Police Chief Otis Steward, who took part in the search of Oduwole's campus apartment in July 2007, at the time of Oduwole's arrest. Items seized there

Please see NOTE, A2

Oduwole

METRO-EAST FOOTBALL TEAMS HAVE ONE LAST CHANCE TO MAKE PLAYOFFS

With the final week of the regular season at hand, Althoff, Cahokia and Edwardsville are among the teams that need wins tonight just to have a shot at qualifying. SPORTS D1

ALSO INSIDE

- Crime Blotter B5
- Lottery A2
- Stocks B4
- Comics C2, C4
- Nation/World A5
- Sudoku C4
- Dear Abby C4
- Obituaries B2
- The Back Page A10
- Lifestyle C1
- Opinion A4
- TV, Movies C3
- Local B1
- Scoreboard D4
- Weather C10
- Local Sports D2
- Sports D1

CLASSIFIED B6-7, C5-9, D6

TODAY'S WEATHER

Sunny. High 60, Low 40