Bajans brace for blasting Ernesto

BEING PREPARED!

These men at Six Men's, St Peter, were ensuring that this small fishing boat was out of the sea and taken to a safe location, given the above normal sea swells expected with the passage of Tropical Storm Ernesto.

The precautionary action taken by fisherfolk and pleasure craft operators was seen around the coastline yesterday, with many people who could not get their boats out of the water heading for the safety of Port St Charles.

Please see Pages 3 and 4.
