Bicycle rider hit by pellet

State police are investigating the Sunday incident

Kristopher Auer said he was riding on the Heritage Rail Trail County Park on Sunday morning when he was shot in the side with what he believes to be a pellet gun.

"I heard it coming," the 44-year-old Baltimore man said. "A moment later, I certainly felt it."

The projectile penetrated two layers of clothing and left a puncture wound on the side of his chest, he said. He cleaned the finger-sized wound, but it still hurts. It kept him up all night.

Auer, an owner at Twenty20 Cycling Co. in Baltimore, said he doesn't know if the shooting, which happened north of Glen Rock, was accidental or intentional. He reported it to police. He just doesn't want to see it happen again.

"The risk is greater than I think whoever did this realizes," Auer said.

State police are investigating the incident, state police spokesman Robert Hicks said.

DAY OF CHAOS

AT LEAST 15 BALTIMORE OFFICERS HURT AS RIOTS FLARE

A demonstrator raises his fist as police stand in formation as a store burns Monday following the funeral of Freddie Gray in Baltimore. The governor declared a state of emergency and called in the National Guard to restore order, while the mayor imposed a weeklong, daily curfew.

State of emergency: Governor called in the National Guard to restore order 'Credible threat': Police say three gangs are working together to 'take out' cops

The Associated Press

BALTIMORE » Rioters plunged part of Baltimore into chaos Monday, torching a pharmacy, setting police cars ablaze and throwing bricks at officers hours after thousands mourned the man who died from a severe spinal injury he suffered in police custody.

The governor declared a state of emergency and called in the National Guard to restore order. A weeklong, daily curfew was imposed beginning Tuesday from 10 p.m. to 5 a.m., the mayor said.

At least 15 officers were hurt, and some two dozen people were arrested. Two officers remained hospitalized, police said.

Officers wearing helmets and wielding shields occasionally used pepper spray to keep the rioters back. For the most part, though, they relied on line formations to keep protesters at bay.

Monday's riot was the latest flare-up over the mysterious death of Freddie Gray, whose fatal encounter with officers came amid the national debate over police use of force, especially when black suspects are involved. Gray was African-American. Police have declined to specify the races of the six officers involved in his arrest, all of whom have been suspended with pay while they are under investigation.

Granola maker signs deal with Martha Stewart

Sarah Lanphier's artisan granola has gone from the First Capital to the Big Apple. Lanphier, who founded Nuts About Granola in 2008, has signed a contract with Martha Stewart Cafe in New York's Chelsea neighborhood to sell some of her made-in-York products under the Martha Stewart Cafe label.

Her deal with Stewart's cafe is pretty small in terms of numbers — just a few hundred bags of granola to start. But Lanphier said the homemaking mogul's endorsement is big in terms of adding exposure and prestige to her company.
